Order

The above appeal is pending with the Commission for adjudication; however the complaints files are not available in the Commission. In term of the decision taken in Commission's meeting dated 21.03.2017, the matter was taken up by the Registrar with the concerned applicant as well as with the concerned Public Authority to provide the relevant documents so as to enable the Commission to reconstruct files for further action. Further, a public notice was put up on the Commission's notice board on 08.05.2017 affording another opportunity to provide the copies of relevant documents within a period of 30 days.

There is no response from the respondent authority. Appellant vide letter dated 15.5.2017 has shown his inability for submission of the paper without subject matter of appeal.
