Amlesh v. PIO, Lady Sri Ram College for Women

Important Dates and time taken:

RTI: 30.10.2013	FAO: 20.01.2014	SA: 25.08.2014
Disposed of	Hearing: 28.10.2016	Decided on: 28.10.2016

Parties Present:

1. Appellant: Represented by Mr. Ravinder Kumar.

Public authority: Dr. Sanjay Roy Choudhary, Vice Principal

FACTS:

2. The appellant is asking information about status of letter dated 22.03.2012 pertaining to pending applications for appointment of dependents on compassionate ground, etc. The CPIO asked the appellant to inspect the records, which was upheld by the FAA. The appellant approached the Commission.

Decision :

3. The PIO in response to RTI application furnished list of candidates appointed under compassionate grounds, beyond the reservation policy of the University. Regarding the applications, the appellant was asked to come and inspect the file. The appellant is seeking compassionate appointment to Ms.Amlesh as she lost her husband Mr. Chet Ram, who is an employee of the respondent authority. The PIO stated that Mr. Chet Ram himself was appointed on compassionate ground against his father's position in library and as per rules, the family of employee does not have a hold over the post continuously beyond one compassionate appointment. This is also supported by rules of DOPT available on their official web site. The PIO also stated that thrice they invited for inspection, but did not avail. The Commission finds sufficient information was furnished and hence disposed of.
