Pankaj Jaychand Agashe v. PIO, KVS, Bhandara.

Important Dates and time taken:

RTI: 08.08.2014	FAO: 16.10.2014	SA: 13.11.2014
Closed.	Hearing: 21.10.2016	Decided on: 21.10.2016

Parties Present:

1. Appellant: Present.

Public authority: Mr. J.M. Bhatia, Principal.

FACTS:

2. The appellant sought information about list of all selected students studying in class I in 2013-14 at KVS, Bhandara etc. The CPIO transferred it to principal of KVS, Bhandara, who was directed by FAA to provide information to the appellant. The appellant approached before this Commission.

Decision :

3. The Head Master said the appellant is having dispute with his wife who is working in that school, he is demanding huge information under different RTI applications, some of which were answered. He is also seeking telephone nos. and other personal information. However, based on the order of FAA Ms. H. K. Shanhotra, the list of children admitted was given to the appellant. The Commission observes that appellant should not have been given the list of students. Such an irresponsible disclosure of details will harm young children. The FAA of the school should be careful in considering the RTI appeals of such disgruntled husbands having disputes with their wives, and protect the private information of children including their daughters or sons. The appellant in this case does not deserve any information. Hence, closed.
