Manoj Yadav v. PIO, Department of Post

RTI	:	07.08.2015
FAO	:	Nil
Second Appeal	:	22.12.2015
Hearing	:	01.06.2017
Appellant	:	Absent
Public authority	:	Mr. B.S. Pathak, Suptd. of Posts
Decided on	:	05.06.2017

FINAL ORDER

FACTS:

1. The appellant filed RTI application seeking information on various notifications which were issued after 30/06/15, relating to the recruitment of Dak Pals in Rural Post Offices under the Aurangabad Division. He wants information in the following format – name of the head post office, name of sub post office, date on which notification was issued, reasons for not recruiting Dak Pals. The CPIO stated in his reply that the information asked, is not available in material form, so the appellant can visit the post office to inspect the record. Being dissatisfied, the appellant approached FAA.FAA directed the CPIO to furnish the complete information in 3 days but the information was not provided, so the appellant approached this Commission.

Decision :

2. The officer stated that the appellant has filed more than 30 repetitive RTI seeking information of similar subject-matter; falsely representing himself under different names at different points of time. Such applications are causing wastage to the time and resources of their office depriving them from conducting the core functions of the public authority.

3. The Commission directs the respondent authority to facilitate inspection of the concerned files to the appellant on 19.06.2017 at 11:00 a.m.

4. The Commission records its admonition against the appellant for misusing the RTI Act and warns him not to resort to RTI Act causing wastage of public resources and time. Disposed of.
