Relevant facts emerging during the Hearing, Discussion and Decision

The matter came up today. The Respondents were not present for the hearing in spite of a written notice having been sent to them. The Complainant had sought information regarding the request of a lady for appointment in the bank on compassionate ground. He submitted that the lady is related to a friend of his. On being asked whether he had sought an authorization from the lady to get the information from the bank concerning the action taken on her request for appointment on compassionate ground, the Complainant replied in the negative.

2. In the light of the foregoing and no authorization having been given by the lady, who applied for appointment, the information, in any case, cannot be disclosed to the Complainant. Therefore, further enquiry into this complaint is not considered necessary.

3. With the above observations, the complaint is disposed of.

4. Copies of this order be given free of cost to the parties.
